THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF THE History of Sport

North American Regional Issue

In 2007 Routledge launched a special annual issue devoted to North America. With a North American Academic Editor, Associate Editor and a North American Board, the issue explored the sport in the cultures of North America: United States, Canada and Mexico.

The collection is one of three regional issues launched in 2007. The second will be devoted to North and South East Asia.

From 2008 the International Journal of the History of Sport increases to 14 issues per year. There will be five regional issues, three regular issues, two themed collections and two review monographs. In addition, there will be an Annual Review which allows scholars the opportunity to develop ideas and arguments more fully than previously within a framework of some 15,000 words. There will also be a regional themed collection and review monograph. In 2008 this will be devoted to North American. In subsequent years the other regional issues will have their themed collections and monographs.
