Many individuals have contributed to the advances that have occurred in the history of sport. However, it can be convincingly argued that no one has had a more influential role than Professor J.A. Mangan. By the means of single-authored books... the many enormously interesting collections that he has brought into being both as the founding editor of the series SGS (and to which he has often contributed chapters), and his untiring work and vision as executive {founding} editor of the IJHS his contribution has been unparalleled.

(Roberta J. Park, 'Introduction: Another Publication of Significance' in J.A.Mangan and Callum McKenzie, 'Blooding' the Martial Male: the Imperial Officer, Field Sports and Big Game Hunting, Routledge, forthcoming.)

The growth of sports studies in the last twenty years has been considerable...Most of {the} intelligent research in the public domain has been published by Frank Cass under the aegis of Professor J.A. Mangan... and social historians everywhere have had reason to be grateful to this double act for their tenacity in seeking out this new field. (Robert Hands, The Times, 22.03.2003)
